Town hears downtown proposal

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

A development proposal for the expansion of downtown Elk Point was brought to town council last Monday by a delegation from Aarbo Ranching.

"We're asking council to have an open mind, and to see this as an opportunity for the future of the town we believe in," Harvey Aarbo said, noting that daughter and son-in-law, Loree and Rob Reynolds, have taken over management of an apartment complex in which both they and the company have invested.

Loree Reynolds outlined the proposal, noting that she contributed an article to the Elk Point Review in April regarding a new business development association aimed at jump-starting community growth. "I got a very interesting response" that included a letter from a local high school student, who had pointed out that the focus was on seniors and asked why there was no emphasis on youth and providing for their needs as well, she noted.

The proposal focused on expanding Elk Point's main street south to Highway 646, and suggested that this would be an ideal location for a new Co-op store, which would be "an anchor store" and an integral part of the community.

"Expanding the main street south will draw people off the highway as well as from the community while enhancing the existing business," she noted.

Leadership candidate Horner visits Elk Point

Alberta Progressive Conservative leadership candidate Doug Horner spoke to an attentive Elk Point crowd during Wednesday's visit.

By VICKI BROOKER

Alberta Progressive Conservative leadership candidate Doug Horner stopped in Elk Point on Wednesday on his tour of northeastern Alberta that also took him to Vilna, Lac La Biche and St. Paul.

"We were rookie MLAs together," MLA Ray Danyluk said as he introduced Horner to a coffee-time crowd at the Empress, and gave a brief run-down on Horner's political career, which has included terms as Deputy Premier, Minister of Advanced Education and Technology, Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Development and Minister Liaison to the Canadian Forces. Horner introduced his campaign manager, Tim Schultz, brother of Elk Point Economic Development Committee chair Don Schultz, was Horner's executive assistant in the Advanced Education portfolio, who, he said,

"Decided to run around the province with me."

Horner is a third-generation politician whose grandfather, Ralph Horner, was a Canadian senator and whose father, Hugh, was a Member of Parliament from 1958 to 1967 and an Alberta MLA from 1967 to 1979. Before going into politics, Horner was an administrative officer with the Royal Bank in Calgary, Cochrane, Consort and Slave Lake, before becoming part of a family business, Westglen Milling, which produced pearl barley and rolled oats. Seeking new markets for the value added products, "I sent a fax to every Canadian embassy around the world, and got a reply from Venezuela. That was the start of 19 years in international sales."

ConAgra Foods Ltd., owners of Beatrice, Orville Redenbacher, Hunts, Wesson and other famous brands, bought out Westglen and hired Horner to work in their Omaha, Nebraska office, where he "learned how to work with corporate America."

After three years, "I decided to quit and came home and started a trading company, trading commodities and food products from Canada to Mexico."

Then he got the suggestion that he should run for provincial politics, "and I did." He was elected as the MLA for Spruce Grove-Sturgeon-St. Albert in 2001.

"It was an eye-opener. I learned how government works. I hadn't paid much attention to what went on when my dad was an MLA."

Horner said he was "thrilled" when Premier Ralph Klein asked him to become the Agriculture and Rural Development Minister, "in the middle of the BSE crisis. We had a really good team for BSE." He was also "really proud of the Rural Development strategy" he implemented, but said the strategy "didn't work the way I thought it would."

The proposal suggested that the current Co-op could be converted into a new town office with other rental offices or retail space and a workout facility, for a "trendy, community centred recreational and office facility."

Reynolds suggested that if the town purchased 10 acres of property south of the Iron Horse Trail from Aarbo Ranching, that land and services could be traded for the store, with the town giving the Co-op a tax receipt for the store. That tax receipt could lead to a government grant that could provide funding for installation of services. If part of the land were donated, that could also qualify for a grant, she noted. The company would be willing to take 80 acres of town-owned land east of the landfill as a trade on part of the cost of the 10 acres, and would also gift or donate part of the value of the 10 acres, in return for a tax receipt.

Aarbo said he had spoken with St. Paul and District Co-op management regarding the proposal, with good response. "It's the town's responsibility to encourage them," he noted. "You have very big input on where the new store will go."

Coun. Eugene Buck noted that, "either location leaves the old building. I get the theme of the idea. The three-corner deal gives leverage for bigger and better things. Keeping the downtown alive is critical... but infrastructure, roads and services don't come cheap."

Coordinator resigns

Economic development coordinator Bob Bezpalko replaced his usual report to council with a letter of resignation, and thanks for the "rewarding and challenging time" he spent in that role. He has taken a position with North East Alberta Hub as manager.

Calculations

Town manager Myron Goyan provided council with a series of calculations on the cost of borrowing funds for upgrade of roads in the industrial park, considering various amounts and payback periods. The money the town receives from the federal gas tax must be spent on roads, it was noted.

Canada Day considerations

Elk Point Co-op asked for permission to close 49th Ave. from 50 Street to the alley across from their parking lot entrance for a promotion they are planning on Canada Day. This was given approval by the town.

A request by a local vendor for a spot to park a mobile ice cream outlet was referred to the Canada Day committee.

Proclamation

Deputy Mayor Dwayne Yaremkevich proclaimed June 15 as World Elder Abuse Awareness Day in Elk Point.

Auto show enhancement Horner well received

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

A sizeable increase in entries in the Elk Point Auto Club Show and Shine went hand-in-hand with the new and exciting additions to the day when the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce joined forces with the club to create the June 4 'Cars, Crafts and Cuisine'.

Chamber president Sandy Smith congratulated the ladies from Servus Credit Union and the TD Canada Trust who served pancakes and all the trimmings to 250 breakfasters and declared themselves ready and willing to do it all again for the Canada Day crowd.

Smith said the vendors she spoke with were happy with the day's results, "and some have already booked for next year." Melanie Poulin had a nonstop lineup at her face painting booth, with 80 children painted throughout the day, and reported that the Ukrainian Dance Club had done very well with their food concession.

Totals from the day were not yet available, and Smith says, "this year we will probably lose money. This was low-key. Next year I hope to have twice as many vendors, and more events."

The chamber was sorry to hear that Bob Bezpalko had resigned his position as economic development coordinator, but wished him well in his new role as manager of Albert Hub.

Under Premier Ed Stelmach, Horner became Minister of Minister of Advanced Education and Technology, and is "very proud of Campus Alberta," a movement that has all publicly funded post-secondary institutions, apprenticeship and industry training facilities working together. "Alberta is the only place in Canada you can apply on line at one time for all 26 colleges."

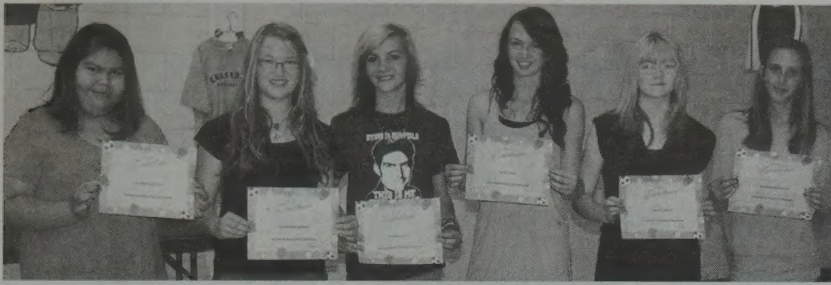

Horner said he was "pretty shocked when Premier Ed called on Jan. 26. Tim and I had the summer all planned out." After considerable soul-searching and discussion with his family and supporters, he decided to seek the party leadership.

At this point, Horner feels the Alberta PCs "Are not united. The party has been struggling for the past 15 years. Values and principles, in 1967, that's what they talked about when six guys got elected. Values and principles don't get stale; they're what we hold dear, not dollars and dogma. We need communication and unity in caucus."

He feels his "number one job would be to unite our party. Not 'Unite the Right,' but 'Unite the PCs.' "We have a tremendous opportunity. Emerging markets will need energy, food and fiber and healthcare innovations. We need to unlock the potential, unleash Albertans' capacity to capture these opportunities, and to create a strategy to take a lead on the world stage."

Horner fielded questions from the audience about the PC party itself as well as help for municipalities, regional economic development, education funding, property tax for seniors and sustainability before heading off to speak to the next audience on his campaign trail.

F. G. Miller High School has "lots of accomplishments to be proud of," physical education teacher Suzanne Beckett told the Athletic Awards ceremony crowd on Thursday evening.

A first-time female golf team, the return of curling to the athletic program, the school's first ever 2A Cross Country zone banner, nine cross-country runners competing in provincials and a bronze in junior badminton were among these accomplishments, as well as 14 of the 17 senior track participants who went to SPAA going on to zones and four of them advancing to provincials. "These memories will last a lifetime."

Twelve junior high students achieved awards of excellence: Dayle Oster (cross-country, volleyball, basketball, track and field), Shae Rinas (cross-country, volleyball, badminton), Leanna Gibson (cross-country, volleyball, basketball, track), Sarah Harms (cross-country, volleyball, badminton), Ashton Ewasiuk (cross-country, volleyball, track), Cari Graus (cross-country, volleyball, track), Jaylynn Mountain (golf, basketball, badminton), Sidney D'Aoust (cross-country, volleyball, basketball), Brittney Ference (volleyball, badminton, track), Cassandra Moores (badminton, basketball, track), Madison MacDonald (cross-country, badminton, track), Jared McGilvery (golf, basketball, badminton) and Vikram Sidhu (cross-country, basketball, badminton).

COUNTY OF ST. PAUL No.19

HIGHLIGHTS June 14, 2011 Council Meeting

2011 Property Tax Notices – were mailed on May 13th. If you do not receive your notice, contact Carolyn at 780-645-3301 to ensure that we have your correct mailing address on file. We encourage everyone to complete the satisfaction survey that is included with your property tax notice.

The County Office will be open during the lunch hour from May 16th to July 15th to accommodate ratepayers during property tax season. In light of the postal strike, we encourage residents to pay their taxes online.

Intermunicipal Development Plan – Councillor D. Dach, Councillor G. Ockerman, CAO Sheila Kitz, Dennis Bergheim and Krystle Fedoretz with the Planning and Development Department have been appointed to a joint committee with the Town of Elk Point to develop an Intermunicipal Development Plan.

Procedures Bylaw – Council was presented with an updated Procedures Bylaw which establishes the rules and provisions to regulate the conduct of business in meetings, to control and maintain order in meetings and to provide for dealing with petitions, correspondence and other submissions to the Council and Committees thereof. The bylaw will be presented at the July meeting for further discussion and approval.

Bylaw No. 1573 – After holding a public hearing to listen to the concerns of adjacent landowners and considering the historical significance of the property, Council approved the Bylaw to lease Lot 28ER, Block 2, Plan 8023220 to Mr. Gordon Scott and his heirs for a 3 year term. The Bylaw also permits the lessee to utilize the ER property for recreational purposes; however the lease is subject to all protocol specified under the County Residential 2 land use district in the County Land Use Bylaw.

Bylaw No. 1578 – Council gave 1st reading to a bylaw to rezone SE 16-57-7-W4 from Agricultural to Industrial/Commercial. The landowner wants to use the quarter to park oilfield trucks – vacs, pressure, flushbys and for light maintenance of approximately 6 trucks and it is not a permitted use under the current zoning. A public hearing will be held at the July meeting.

Bylaw No. 1579 – Council gave 1st reading to a bylaw to rezone 10 acres in SE 27-59-10-W4 from Agricultural to Industrial/Commercial to be used for auto wrecking and a tow truck business. This is not a permitted use under the current zoning. A public hearing will be held at the July meeting.

Water Commission – Administration received 8 Request for Proposals for the upgrade to the Ashmont Treatment Plant and the water line to Lottie Lake. Council will review the requests to determine which applicants they will interview.

Mooswa Cemetery – George and Diana Anderson own the NE 22-56-5-W4 where the Mooswa Cemetery is located. They will be subdividing one acre out of the quarter section and donating it to the Mooswa Cemetery. The County will waive the subdivision fees and consolidate it with the 2 acre parcel owned by the Mooswa Cemetery.

Hamlet Grant – The County is applying for a Streets Improvement Grant of $37,080. The grant will be used to replace approximately 900 feet of sidewalk in the Hamlet of Ashmont and approximately 30 feet of sidewalk in the Hamlet of Heinsburg. This is a small grant that the County receives each year and prior to receiving the funds, they must decide where they will be spent.

Auditing Services – Administration reviewed the Request for Proposals from three firms to provide auditing services to the County. Based on the applications, Council appointed Synergy Chartered Accountants as the auditor for the municipality for a three year period as they were the lowest bidder. The decision to change auditors, is completely financial, it is no way a reflection of the service received from the previous auditing firm.

Employee Assistance Program – Effective July 1, 2011 the Employee Assistance Program will be added to the benefit package for all County employees. Participation in the EAP program reduces the cost of the Long Term Disability program by 5% as AMSC has seen a reduction in the number of LTD claims for staff who have access to this program.

Rental of Office Space – The County entered into an agreement with HUB to rent office space in the lower level of our Administration Building from June 1, 2011 to March 31, 2012.

Summer!

By the time you read this, summer will have officially arrived, and we will be well into the longest day of the year. Internet sources say the summer solstice arrived at 11:16 a.m. MDT, and that today, we have slightly over 18 hours and 15 minutes of sunshine. We hope so, we really hope so, after the past week of virtually nonstop rain.

Enough of the tedious spring weather that caused cancellation of tournaments and events - who knew it could be too wet for a duck race? - and it's time to get out and enjoy summer!

We definitely need good weather for the next two weekends, with F. G. Miller graduation this weekend, Canada Day the following Friday, and Stoney Lake Rodeo that Saturday and Sunday. More great events follow, such as the Saskatoon Festival at Fort George and Buckingham House on July 17, and other events around the area, such as Vermilion Fair and Haying in the 30s. And of course, there are family vacations..

Have a great summer everyone, and stay safe!

WAY BACK WHEN...

Tourists, track and sod turning

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 21 IN...

1986

After two hours of intense discussion at a special meeting of the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce, a decision was made to leave the tourist booth exactly where it was, and to raise the pay for tourist booth workers to $4.50 per hour. Bed races were back on the Canada Day agenda, coming just before the Lioness Club's parade, and the site of the afternoon events, which would include opening ceremonies, games and contests and a tug-of-war, was moved to the area north of the arena.

1991

A busy summer was ahead for the Town of Elk Point, with utility lines to be installed to the Agricultural Society grounds and a water line to the Recreation Park, and replacement of a stretch of downtown sidewalk taking precedence over a playground at the Recreation Park. Buddy Bensmiller left Ray Croteau and Bert Croteau in the dust as he broke Dewberry's track record with a 1:08.87 run at Dewberry's annual chuckwagon meet.

1996

Sod was turned for Elk Point's new Roman Catholic church, with Bishop Raymond Roy officiating at the blessed beginning of the construction that would house a growing congregation. Town council approved ball diamond fencing and re-oiling of the Peter Fidler statue, but said the town could not repair the Canada Day stage in time for the July 1 festivities.

2001

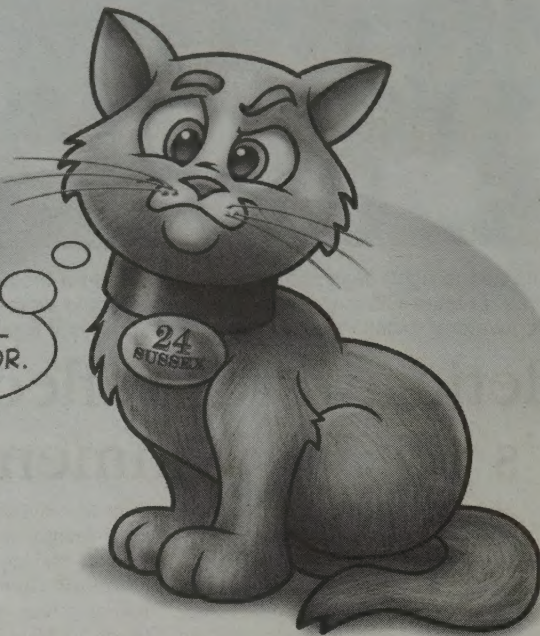

Visitors stepped back in time at Fort George and Buckingham House at the annual Powder and Horn celebration, with the Edmonton House Brigade on hand and a "North West Company recruiter" seeking out new voyageurs. The 2001 Paint Up Downtown campaign was nearing its end after sprucing up the majority of the buildings on main street.

2006

Public works superintendent Ron Fraess reported "987 square meters of broken-up road" in need of repair when he visited town council, and brought along a chunk of pavement supposedly three inches thick but looking "suspiciously like one inch," and may not have met original specifications. Chief Napewaew Comprehensive School's grads were the pride of that community, with Christine Faithful as their valedictorian.

GUEST COLUMN

There is an often-quoted story about the Good Old Days I would like to quote once more. A young man was talking to his Dad about current events the other night. He asked his dad what he thought about the shootings at schools, the immoral president, the computer age and just things in general. His dad replied: "Gee, let me think a minute ... I was born before television, penicillin, polio shots, frozen foods, Xerox, contact lenses, Frisbees and the pill. There weren't things like radar, credit cards, laser beams or ballpoint pens. Man had not invented pantyhose, dishwashers, clothes dryers, electric blankets, air conditioners and he hadn't walked on the moon.

"Your mom and I got married first then lived together. Every family had a father and a mother, and every kid over 14 had a rifle that his dad taught him how to use and respect. Until I was 25, I called every man older than me 'sir'.

"Sunday was set aside for going to church as a family, helping those in need, and just visiting with your neighbors. We were before gay rights, computer dating, dual careers, daycare centers, and group therapy. Our lives were governed by the Ten Commandments, good judgment and common sense. We were taught to know the difference between right and wrong, and to stand up and take responsibility for our actions. Serving your country was a privilege, living here was a bigger privilege. We thought fast food was what you ate during Lent. Having a meaningful relationship meant getting along with your cousins. Draft dodgers were people who closed their front doors when the evening breeze started. And time-sharing meant time the family spent together - not condominiums.

"We never heard of FM radio, tape decks, CD, electric type writers, artificial hearts, word processors, yogurt or guys wearing ear rings. We listened to the 'big bands', Jack Benny and the President's speeches on the radio. I don't

deanna

from the FCSS desk

ever remember any kid blowing his brains out listening to Tommy Dorsey.

"If you saw anything with 'Made in Japan' on it, it was junk! The term 'making out' referred to how you did on your school exam. Pizzas, McDonald's and instant coffee were unheard of. We had five-and-ten-cent stores where you could actually buy things for five and ten cents. Ice cream cones, phone calls, rides on a street car, and a cola were all a nickel. And if you didn't want to 'splurge,' you could spend your nickel on enough stamps to mail a letter and two postcards. You could buy a new Chevy Coupe for $600, but who could afford one? Too bad, because gas was only 11 cents!

"In my day, 'grass' was mowed, 'coke' was a cold drink, 'pot' was something your mother cooked in, and 'rock music' was your grandmother's lullaby. 'Aids' were helpers in the principal's office, a 'chip' meant a piece of wood, 'hardware' was found in a hardware store and software wasn't even a word.

"We were not before the difference between the sexes was discovered, but we were surely before: the sex change. And we were the last generation that was so dumb as to think you needed a husband to have a baby. No wonder people today call us old and confused, there is such a generation gap ... and I'm ONLY 53! Did you get all that Son?"

I am sure if a person was writing this same story today, after talking to his grandparents or great-grandparents, more up-to-date, current information would be added. I am not sure what time period the gentlemen was referring to but it sounds like it could have been during the 1930s or 1940s, and this story could have been written in the 1990s. So there you go. Anyway, the question now becomes: Do we know how our parents, grandparents and great-grandparents lived; what their interests were; what problems they had to solve and basically what brought them to our area of the Province?

Today we are learning that we have some four-generational families located in the Elk Point area. We would like to find out more about these families and recognize them on Grandparents Day in September. But first of all it would be great to talk to these families and hear their stories. If you are one of these families please give the FCSS office a call at 780-724-3800.

Comprehensive School
graduates Class of '11

By MARY JANE QUINNEY

Chief NapeweawComprehensive School

On June 10, Frog Lake parents, teachers, elders, friends and family witnessed the celebration of graduation for five Grade 12 students: Jordan Stanley, Darlene McCarthy, Skye Berland, Natasha Lewis and September Moyah. In a beautifully decorated gymnasium with the theme Little Wonders, based on the song by Rob Thomas, the five graduates were honoured for their completion of high school.

Miss Chell toasted the grads and Darlene McCarthy made the reply. Jordan Stanley toasted the parents and Larry Quinney made the reply. Natasha Lewis toasted the staff and Rick Pilisko made the reply and Skye Berland toasted the elders and Gary Berland made the reply.

The class valedictorian, September Moyah, spoke to the importance of setting goals. The guest speaker, Neil Markham, spoke about building relationships to create solutions. Raymond Quinney spoke of the significance of the spiritual being and understanding our relationship to the creator.

Frog Lake graduations maintain a tradition of having each graduate choose an elder who has helped them throughout their life journey. With their recognized elder by their side, each graduate was honoured with an eagle feather and a ceremonial pouch. Gifts were then presented to the parents by the graduates.

Chief and Council presented the graduates with jackets and rings.

Graduates were also recipients of annual awards. September Moyah received the Academic Excellence Award. Skye Berland received the Citizenship Award. Natasha Lewis and September Moyah shared the Viola Faithful Memorial Award, and Jordan Stanley and Darlene McCarthy shared the Timmy Quinney Memorial Scholarship.

Elk Point Water Spray Park fundraisers' long-awaited Duck Race was rerouted from the North Saskatchewan River to the Elk Point Co-op, due to weather that was definitely NOT lovely for ducks. Co-op employee Kim Munro drew the duck purchased by Sharil Baumgardner for the $1,000 first prize, with Ann Berg winning $500, Lloyd Maidment and Brad Lazicki $200 each and Rob Harms $100. Committee members (left to right) Valerie Lazicki, Bernice Capjack, Lynda Letwin, Shirley Harms and Lynn Berg were sorry to report the rest of their plans for the afternoon had been cancelled.
